

SPAIN FRESH presents a one-day pop up installation by the Spanish artist BUBI CANAL on June 13 at Open Gallery Space at 355A Bowery, New York. Opening Reception at 6 PM.

BUBI CANAL's project will consist in an installation. A limited edition of 100 T-shirts will be hanging from the walls of the space with BUBI's signature use of color and geometric shapes. All the visitors will participate in a "lottery-performance" and have the possibility of winning a T-shirt at the end of the event. BUBI's idea is to create a dynamic space where attendees will interact and have the possibility of taking a piece of the installation home with them.

SPAIN FRESH has selected this proposal through an open call for young Spanish artists living and working in NYC with the aim of promoting and giving extra visibility to their work. SPAIN FRESH is a platform that promotes the new Spanish creativity abroad. Follow us! www.spainfreshspace.com

BUBI CANAL (Santander, Spain 1980) is a visual artist living in New York City. BUBI teleports us to impossible worlds full of emotions and mysterious and intriguing characters. His work combines different types of media and artistic methods including photography, video and sculpture and deals with the recurring themes of human wishes, dreams, love and magic. BUBI's work was exhibited in international art centers and galleries such as Centre Pompidou in Paris, La Casa Encendida in Madrid and Munch Gallery in New York. www.bubicanal.com

www.spainfreshspace.com | spainfresh.tumblr.com | facebook.com/spainfresh | twitter.com/spainfresh | instagram.com/spainfresh

With the kind support of: Spain Culture New York, The Spain-USA Foundation and SPAIN arts & culture
Sponsored by: Despaña Brand Foods and Estrella Damm Media Partner: Remezcla